AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of March, 1745.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS a Contagious Diſtemper now rages in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom amongſt Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers, and Heifers, which if not timely prevented, may end in the entire Deſtruction of ſuch Cattle: And whereas by an Act of Parliament paſſed this preſent Seſſion, intituled, "An Act to enable his Majeſty to make Rules, Orders, and "Regulations, more effectually to prevent the "ſpreading of the Diſtemper which now rages "amongſt the horned Cattle in this Kingdom;" it is enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, from Time to Time to make ſuch Rules, Orders and Regulations, or to vary or repeal the ſame, as he or they ſhall judge moſt expedient and effectual in Great-Britain, Ireland, and all other his Majeſty's Dominions, for putting a Stop to, or preventing the ſpreading of the ſaid Diſtemper; and whoſoever ſhall offend againſt any ſuch Rules, Orders, Regulations, or Variations, being convicted thereof before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Town Corporate, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, are made ſubject to the Penalty of Ten Pounds; one Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh; to be levied by Diſtreſs; and in Default of Diſtreſs, the Offender to be committed by ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices to the Houſe of Correction for three Months; and that ſuch Rules, Orders, and Regulations ſhall be publickly read upon the next Sunday after the Receipt of the ſame, and the firſt Sunday in every ſubſequent Month, during the Time the ſame ſhall continue in Force, immediately after the Prayers, in all Pariſh Churches, Chapels, and other Places ſet apart for Divine Worſhip; and every ſuch Order, Rule, and Regulation, ſhall be kept by the Miniſter of every Pariſh Church, Chapel, or Place, who ſhall permit any Perſon reſiding within his Pariſh, Chapelry, or Place, to read the ſame, during the Time ſuch Rule, Order, or Regulation ſhall continue in Force.—And it is further enacted by the ſaid Act, That the Removal, Driving, or Sale of every Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer, or Heifer, contrary to any ſuch Rule, Order, or Regulation, ſhall be deemed a diſtinct and ſeparate Offence within the Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Act.—His Majeſty being deſirous of doing all in his Power to put a Stop to the ſpreading of the ſaid Diſtemper, has thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council (who have conſulted Phyſicians and Surgeons thereupon, and they have given it as their Opinion, that all the Methods of Cure which have been put in Practice, both at Home and Abroad, have proved ſo unſucceſsful, that they have rather contributed to propagate than ſtop the Infection; for while Means are uſing to ſave the Sick, the Diſeaſe ſpreads amongſt the Sound, and is increaſed more and more, in Proportion to the Number ſeized with it) to make and eſtabliſh the Rules, Orders, and Regulations following, which his Majeſty does, by this his Order of his Privy Council, requiring and commanding all his Subjects in the ſeveral Counties, Cities, Towns Corporate, and Pariſhes, and all other Parts of this his Realm, ſtrictly to purſue and obſerve, during his Royal Pleaſure.

Firſt, That all Cowkeepers, Farmers, and Owners of any of the ſaid ſeveral Sorts of Cattle, in any Place where the ſaid Diſtemper has appeared, or ſhall hereafter appear, do, as ſoon as any of the ſaid Cattle ſhall appear to have any Signs or Marks of the ſaid Diſtemper, immediately remove ſuch Cattle to ſome Place diſtant from the reſt, and cauſe the ſame to be ſhot dead, or otherwiſe killed, with as little Effuſion of Blood as may be, and the Bodies to

to be immediately buried with the Skin and Horns on, at leaſt Four Feet in Depth above the Body of the Beaſt ſo buried, having firſt cut and ſlaſhed the Hides thereof from Head to Tail, and quite round the Body in ſeveral Places, ſo as to render the ſame of no Uſe.

Secondly, That they do cauſe all the Hay, which ſuch infected Cattle have breathed upon, and all the Hay, Straw, or Litter, that they have touched, or has been near them, to be forthwith removed and burnt; and that no Perſon who ſhall attend any infected Cattle, ſhall go near the ſound ones in the ſame Clothes.

Thirdly, That they do cauſe the Houſes or Buildings where any ſuch infected Cattle ſhall have ſtood, to be cleaned from all Dung and Filth, and wet Gunpowder, Pitch, Tar or Brimſtone to be fired or burnt in ſeveral Parts of ſuch Buildings, at the ſame Time keeping in the Smoke as much as poſſible; and that the ſame be afterwards frequently waſhed with Vinegar and warm Water; and that no ſound Cattle be put therein for Two Months at leaſt.

Fourthly, That they do not ſuffer any of their Cattle, that ſhall have recovered from the ſaid Diſtemper before the Notification of this Order, to be brought amongſt the ſound Cattle, until they ſhall have been kept ſeparate a Month at leaſt, and until they ſhall have been well curried and waſhed with Vinegar and warm Water.

Fifthly, That no Perſon whatſoever do buy, ſell, or expoſe to Sale, the Milk, or any Part of the Fleſh or Intrails of any ſuch infected Cattle; or feed, or cauſe to be fed any Hog, Calf, Lamb, or other Animal therewith; or drive, or cauſe to be drove any ſuch infected Cattle to any Fair or Market, either in or out of the County where the ſaid Cattle now are, or to or from any other Place whatſoever, out of their own reſpective Ground, while they are ſo diſtemper'd.

Sixthly, That no Perſon do drive or remove any of the ſaid Sorts of Cattle, whether infected or not infected, from any Farm or Ground where any ſuch infected Cattle are, or ſhall have been, within the Space of One Month before ſuch Removal.

Seventhly, That as ſoon as the Diſtemper ſhall appear in or among any of the ſaid Sorts of Cattle of any Cowkeepers, Farmers, or other Perſons, they do immediately give Notice thereof to the Conſtable of the Town or Pariſh, and alſo to the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch infected Cattle ſhall be, of the Appearance of ſuch Infection, or to any Inſpector to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the Diſtrict, where ſuch Pariſh or Place ſhall lie, purſuant to the Directions herein after given, to the End that the ſaid Officers may be the better enabled to do their Duty, according to the Directions herein after mentioned.

That no Perſon do preſume to obſtruct any Conſtable, Churchwarden, Overſeer of the Poor, or other Perſon to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace to aſſiſt in the Execution of the Powers or Directions given, or to be given, in Purſuance of this Order.

That whoſoever ſhall diſobey any of the ſaid Rules, Orders, or Regulations, ſhall be ſtrictly proſecuted for the Penalty inflicted by the ſaid Act.

And for the more effectual carrying into Execution the ſaid Rules, Orders, and Regulations, and preventing the ſpreading of the ſaid Infection, his Majeſty doth, by this his Order in Council, ſtrictly command and direct, that the ſeveral Juſtices of the Peace for the ſeveral Counties, Cities, Ridings, and Towns Corporate in this Realm, where the ſaid Diſtemper has already appeared, or ſhall appear, do meet together forthwith, or immediately after the ſaid Diſtemper ſhall appear within their reſpective Diviſions, and ſubdivide and diſtribute themſelves, in order to meet in leſs Numbers in ſuch Parts and Places as ſhall be moſt uſeful.

That the ſaid Juſtices do conſider of ſuch Methods as ſhall be moſt proper to carry the ſaid Rules and Orders effectually into Execution, and for that Purpoſe, that they meet from time to time, as often as ſhall be neceſſary to anſwer the End of this Order, ſo long as the Infection continues in the Neighbourhood, to give ſuch Inſtructions to the Conſtables, Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the reſpective Pariſhes, and ſuch Inſpectors, if any ſhall be appointed, purſuant to the Powers herein after given; to receive Accounts from ſuch Officers of what they ſhall do from time to time, in Purſuance of this Order, and ſuch Inſtructions; to hear Complaints, and puniſh Offenders againſt the ſaid Rules, Orders, and Regulations; to tranſmit to his Majeſty's Privy Council from time to time a particular Account of their Proceedings, and to do whatever ſhall be neceſſary to render this Order moſt effectual.

And his Majeſty doth further ſtrictly command all Conſtables, Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the Poor, and ſuch Inſpectors, if any ſhall be appointed as aforeſaid, as ſoon as they ſhall know or be informed that any of the ſaid Sorts of Cattle within their reſpective Diſtricts are infected, to go to, and take an exact Account of the Number and Sorts of ſuch Cattle in the Poſſeſſion of any Perſon, diſtinguiſhing the infected from ſuch as are not ſo, and to repeat thoſe Accounts weekly; and to ſee that the Infected be ſhot, or otherwiſe killed as aforeſaid, removed and buried according to the above mentioned Rules, and that all other the before mentioned Rules, Orders, and Regulations, and ſuch Directions as ſhall be given by the ſaid Juſtices, be punctually performed and obeyed.

That they do, from time to time, tranſmit to the Juſtices, at each of their Meetings, an exact Account of all that they ſhall do, or cauſe to be done, or that the Owners of the ſaid Cattle ſhall do or cauſe to be done, in Purſuance of this Order; and likewiſe of all Neglects or Breaches thereof, and proſecute the Offenders therein before the ſaid Juſtices, for the Penalty inflicted by the ſaid Act; and that they do take an exact Account of all ſuch Cattle as ſhall be ſhot, or otherwiſe killed as aforeſaid, either by them, or by the Owners, in Purſuance of the aforeſaid Regulations, and tranſmit the ſame to the ſaid Juſtices, together with the true and real Values of ſuch Cattle, at the reſpective Times immediately before they were infected.

That they take particular Care, that the Owners do divide their Cattle into as many ſmall Parcels as their Ground will admit of, and at ſome reaſonable Diſtance from each other; and that they do carefully gather or cauſe to be gathered up the Dung of all infected Cattle, and that the ſame be buried deep under Ground.

And his Majeſty doth hereby further command and empower the ſaid Conſtables, Churchwardens, and Overſeers, and Inſpectors, where any ſuch ſhall be appointed, to ſtop and examine all ſuch of the ſaid Sorts of Cattle within their ſaid reſpective Diſtricts found in the Road, or paſſing or driving to or from any Markets, Fairs, or Places; and upon their finding any ſuch Cattle to be infected, to ſhoot, or otherwiſe kill the ſame, and diſpoſe of their Carcaſes and Dung in the ſame Manner as is herein before directed.

And his Majeſty doth hereby further empower the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, in caſe they ſhall find it neceſſary for the Purpoſes of this Order, to appoint proper Perſons to be employed as Inſpectors of the Houſes, Buildings, Ground, and Cattle, within their reſpective Diſtricts, to be aſſiſtant to the ſaid Conſtables, Churchwardens, and Overſeers, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

And for the Encouragement of the Owners of ſuch infected Cattle, his Majeſty doth hereby promiſe, that they ſhall be paid by the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for every ſuch infected Beaſt which ſhall be killed according to the ſaid Rules, immediately after the Infection ſhall firſt appear upon them, one Moiety or half the Value of ſuch Cattle, not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings for each of the ſaid Sorts, excepting Calves, and not exceeding Ten Shillings for each Calf, the Numbers, and Values, and Conformities to the above mentioned Rules, to be aſcertained by the Oaths of the Owners, and Two of the ſaid Conſtables, Churchwardens, Overſeers, or Inſpectors, to be taken before One or Two of the ſaid Juſtices, who ſhall certify under their Hands, or the Hand of One of them, the Sums of Money which ſuch Owners ſhall appear to their or his Satisfaction intitled to, by virtue of this Order for infected Beaſts ſhot, or otherwiſe killed, ſlaſhed, and buried according to the above Regulations.

And it is hereby further directed, that for the better notifying this Order, the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the next London Gazette.

WILLIAM SHARPE.

Turin, March 5, N. S. Yeſterday Evening Count Althan, Adjutant General to the Imperial Army, arrived here, with an Account to Prince Lichtenſtein, of the Succeſs of the Diverſion attempted at Cozzo and Zemo in the Lumellina: The Garriſon of the former could not be forced, but the Thing has ſo far ſucceeded, that it is kept there at a Stand, and the Alarm is thereby given in the whole Province. At Zemo they ſucceeded better, and beſides the taking there of 200 Priſoners, with a Lieutenant Colonel, two Captains, ſix Subalterns, and 300 Horſes or Mules, M. de Flodolf, a Major General in the Spaniſh Service, who was come out from Mortaro thither to reconnoitre, with a Guard of 50 Dragoons and 50 Miquelets, has likewiſe been taken by the Huſſars, who have cut the greateſt Part of his Detachment in Pieces. Count Platz, who was ordered to attack Montralvi, is like to meet no Oppoſition, as we are informed that the three Battalions that were there are retired to Aſti.

Copenhagen, March 12, N. S. As the Danes have begun to carry on a Trade in the Mediterranean, without being yet upon peaceable Terms with the Mahometan Powers, Orders are given out here to arm three Ships (one of 60, and two of 50 Guns) to convoy and protect ſuch Veſſels as may be employ'd in that Commerce. And if the Continuance of the preſent hard Froſt does not retard the Preparations, this Convoy will be ready to ſail by the End of next Month, or the Beginning of May. For theſe eight or ten Days paſt the King of Denmark has been ſomewhat better, and we flatter ourſelves with the Hopes of his Recovery.

Copenhagen, March 15, N. S. By a Letter of the 26th paſt, O. S. from Gottenbourg, there is Advice, that they had been endeavouring to cut a Paſſage for the Frederick through the Ice, but had not ſucceeded in clearing her. The Officers, it was ſaid, complained very much of their their Accommodation on Board, as being not anſwerable to what had been promiſed them at Stockholm. One of them, who had killed another in a Duel, and made his Eſcape, paſſed by here laſt Week on his Way to France.

Berlin, March 15, N. S. M. Beckers, the Elector Palatine's Miniſter at this Court, has received final Orders to repair in the ſame Character to that of Vienna. The King of Pruſſia arrived to Day from Potzdam.

Dreſden, March 15. This Court has ſent Orders to M. de Debroſſe, their Miniſter at the Hague, to ask, in his Poliſh Majeſty's Name, the Guaranty of the States General to the Treaty of Dreſden.

Paris, March 18, N. S. The Armies of the two Crowns in Italy are beginning to reaſſemble to oppoſe the Progreſs of the Enemy, who have forced the Poſt of Aſti, from whence our Troops retired with Loſs, and General de Montal was taken Priſoner. The King has given the Archbiſhoprick of this Place to M. de Bellefonds, Archbiſhop of Arles.

Hague, March 22. By Letters from Turin of the 5th Inſtant, there is Advice, that the King of Sardinia has given Orders for puſhing his Military Operations, in Concert with the Auſtrians, with the utmoſt Vigour, both on the Side of Alexandria and Aſti. Affairs on the Side of the Low Countries remain in the ſame Situation.

Whitehall, March 14.

This Afternoon an Expreſs arrived from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices.

Aberdeen, March 9. Information has been received, but we are not certain of the Truth of it, that 4 or 500 of the Rebels, with the French Piquets, were gone to Fort Auguſtus, and had taken the old Barracks, and that they expected they ſhould take the Caſtle in a very few Days. They ſtill however pretend that they will defend the Paſſage of the Spey. The Pretender's Son is himſelf come to Elgin, and is at preſent very ill there. The Perſon called Lord John Drummond, with the Remains of his Regiment, and the few French Horſe lately landed, is at Gordon Caſtle: Their Low Country People, whom they ſet at 3000, are at Elgin, Fochabers, and other Places on both Sides the Spey. They are intrenching themſelves, and preparing Heriſſons and Crow Feet to ſpoil the Fords, and they give out that their Clans are coming behind them. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland has ordered Lord Loudoun to come and join the Army with all his Highlanders. As ſoon as the great Snow, which fell laſt Night, is a little run off, we ſhall march from hence. The Day before the Pretender's Son's Arrival at Elgin, ſome People unknown were ſhipped off in a little Fiſhing Veſſel at Portſoy, which little Harbour is ſtill in the Power of the Rebels. Three of the King's Ships are cruizing in the narrow Frith of Murray, which it is hop'd will effectually prevent any Attempt which may be made by the French of aſſiſting the Rebels at Inverneſs. The Diſpoſitions and Cantonment of our Troops are ſo contiguous, that we have no Reaſon to apprehend any Surprize. At this Time the Whole of our Infantry is within the Towns of Old and New Aberdeen. At Forfar, where each of our four Diviſions lay a Night, three French Iriſh Officers were concealed in the Town during the whole Time, and after all our Troops were paſſed through, they were permitted to beat up for Volunteers there.

A Deſign was formed at Montroſe for the Country People to come down and reſcue the Rebel Priſoners; but fortunately Kingſton's Regiment being there, prevented the Affair, and the Priſoners are now ordered under a Guard to Stirling. By Advices from Edinburgh, upon Bligh's Regiment being embarked to join our Army, ſome diſaffected Perſons had formed a Deſign to riſe and break the Priſon Doors; whereupon Leigh's Regiment has been ordered to march from Berwick to Edinburgh. The Monroes, Sutherlands, and the reſt of the well-affected Northern Clans, are joined with Lord Loudoun, and will come with him. The Duke of Gordon arrived this Evening at our Head Quarters, from his own Houſe, which he left Yeſterday, on Foot, and in the moſt ſecret Manner he could, the Rebels who have lived upon his Eſtate, having conſtantly watched his Grace ever ſince they have been there. The Perſon called Lord John Drummond is the Chief of thoſe in that Part of the Country. Upon Information that ſome Rebels, and amongſt others, Roy Stuart, were concealed in this Town, his Royal Highneſs has ordered Search to be made for them.

By Advices from the Duke of Athol of the 4th, Sir Andrew Agnew and his 500 Men continued at Blair. The neareſt Party of the Rebels was at a Place called Dalnaſpeedit, the utmoſt Limits of Athol, 12 Miles above Blair, in the Road to Inverneſs; and from thence to Inverneſs they were in Poſſeſſion of the whole Country, and guarded all the Paſſes ſo ſtrictly, that there was no getting any certain Intelligence about them. The laſt Accounts were, that after having taken Poſſeſſion of Inverneſs and the Caſtle, they ſent one Party over the Firth after Lord Loudoun, and another towards Fort Auguſtus, which Place it was doubted would fall into their Hands; and their Numbers were increaſing. The Duke of Athol had ſent a Party to Marr, and had retaken the young Laird of Invereald, who was at his Father's Houſe upon Parole. The Rebels at Inverneſs gave out, that the Pretender's Son would go himſelf to the Iſle of Sky to raiſe Men there.

Edinburgh, March 10. We have bad Weather, Froſt and Snow; the Tranſports with Blyth's Regiment, &c. are ſtill Wind bound in the Forth.

The Heſſians have their Head Quarters, with their greateſt Body of Troops, at Perth, and his Highneſs the Prince of Heſſe, and the Earl of Crawfurd are at that Place.

By different Accounts which we have received, there is Reaſon to apprehend that the Rebels have got Poſſeſſion of Fort Auguſtus.

AN ESSAY on the Causes of the Decline of the FOREIGN TRADE, consequently of the Value of the Lands of Britain, and on the Means to restore both.

As of all the Methods of raising Taxes on the People the easiest and most equal must naturally raise the most Money, and the fewest Murmurs; a Proposal is here offered to the Consideration of the Publick, for one Tax on the voluntary Consumers of superfluous Luxuries, to supply all our present, positive, and involuntary Taxes, without their ill Consequences, more easy, more equal, speedier raised, productive of more Money, which will every Year bring in large Sums to carry on the present War; at the same Time restore Trade, and increase the Value of our Lands. Preface, Page 4.

Printed for J. Brotherton, at the Bible in Cornhill; and sold by M. Cooper in Pater-noster Row; A. Dodd without Temple Bar; and R. Amey in the Court of Requests.
